

"HACC employees are the backbone of this agency and we value their professionalism, hard work and dedication to service," Executive Director Richard J. Monocchio....

Helen Sanchez is the May employee of the month. Helen is a HACC Housing Specialist who has dedicated 20 years of service to the agency. Helen gladly assists dozens of clients on a daily basis with patience and a professional attitude without complaining. Helen says that every day she feels fulfilled and rewarded because she is able to help people solve problems. She is also a loyal Chicago Blackhawks fan. "Every day presents new challenges and knowing that I have helped someone gives me great joy and pride. I am most grateful for my colleagues who work with me. They too deserve gratitude and appreciation," she said.

Congratulations Helen!

