Yes No Maybe

FOR LANDLORDS, PROPERTY OWNERS, PROPERTY MANAGERS, ETC

All landlords and property owners have a right to choose a tenant that will pay rent on time and be respectful of property and others. However, they also have a responsibility to understand and comply with fair housing laws designed to protect the rights that applicants have to choose where they would like to live without experiencing discrimination.

What does it mean to provide equal access to available residential and commercial property? When can landlords and property managers turn down an applicant? What accommodations are property owners required to make for people with disabilities? How can landlords and property owners make sure that their process is fair for all applicants?

Experts will be on hand to discuss the important components of fair housing and risk management strategies for preventing discrimination.

Hope you can make it!

Cheers!
